Message from the Guest Editors

The Special Issue "Polymer-Based Nanocapsules for Drug Delivery in Cardiovascular Diseases and Metabolic Syndrome" has the potential to contribute to modern pharmacology by offering innovative nanotechnology-based solutions to treat metabolic syndrome and cardiovascular diseases. By bringing together a diverse team of experts, we can explore innovative research, review the latest advances, and provide valuable information for academics and practitioners alike. We would be committed to ensuring the highest scientific standards, rigorous peer review, and prompt publication of high-quality articles. We envision a collection of original research articles, reviews, and perspectives displaying the multifaceted aspects of nanophytopharmaceuticals, from formulation development to clinical trials.

In this Special Issue, original research articles and reviews are welcome. Research areas may include (but are not limited to) the following: polymer-based nanoparticles for drug delivery in coronary artery disease, type 2 diabetes, dyslipidemia, hepatic steatosis, polycystic ovarian syndrome, chronic kidney disease, cancer, and myeloid acute leukemia.
