Advances in Colloidal Drug Delivery Systems

Message from the Guest Editor

The Pharmaceutics journal is excited to present a Special Issue entitled "Advances in Colloidal Drug Delivery Systems". Colloidal drug delivery systems, including liposomes, nanoparticles, and micelles, are pivotal to enhancing the solubility, stability, and bioavailability of therapeutic agents. These systems offer targeted delivery and controlled release, improving therapeutic outcomes and reducing side effects. The scientific background emphasizes the versatility and adaptability of colloidal carriers in addressing the challenges of traditional drug formulations. This research is crucial for developing innovative solutions that improve patient compliance and treatment efficacy. The aim of this Special Issue is to showcase the latest advancements in the design, synthesis, and application of colloidal systems in drug delivery. Contributions are invited that explore novel materials, formulation strategies, characterization techniques, and clinical applications, providing a comprehensive overview of current trends and future directions in this dynamic field.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Pharmaceutics (ISSN 1999-4923) is an online open access journal on the science and technology of pharmaceuticals and biopharmaceuticals. The scientific community, the wider community and the general public have unlimited and free access to the content as soon as a paper is published; this open access to your research ensures your findings are shared with the widest possible audience. Please consider publishing your impressive work in this high quality journal. We would be pleased to welcome you as one of our authors.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, Embase, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q1 (Pharmacology and Pharmacy) / CiteScore - Q1
(Pharmaceutical Science)

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 14.9 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 3.3 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2025).
