Women's Special Issue Series: Pharmacy

Message from the Guest Editors

To celebrate and highlight the achievements of women in pharmacy academic research, this Special Issue, entitled “Women's Special Issue Series: Pharmacy”, will present related work in pharmacy education and practice from female scientists. We also hope that this Special Issue will further encourage and promote the scientific contributions of female researchers in this field. A “Women in Pharmacy Award” will be launched and granted to the best paper published in this Special Issue. Each award nominee will be assessed on her paper's originality, quality, and contribution to the field by the Evaluation Committee. The winner will receive a certificate, a monetary award, and an invitation for another submission to Pharmacy. We cordially invite researchers to submit their work on topics across all areas of Pharmacy Education and Practice. Review articles, original research papers, and communications are all welcome. Articles where women are lead or senior authors are encouraged. We welcome submissions from all authors, irrespective of gender.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

You are invited to contribute a research article or a comprehensive review for consideration and publication in Pharmacy (ISSN 2226-4787). Pharmacy, an international scientific open access journal on pharmacy education and practice, is published by MDPI online quarterly. Pharmacy is published in open access format—research articles, reviews and other contents are released on the Internet immediately after acceptance. The scientific community and the general public have unlimited and free access to the content as soon as it is published.
