Femtosecond Laser Micro/Nanofabrication

Message from the Guest Editor

The Special Issue "Femtosecond Laser Micro/Nanofabrication" seeks to promote scientific and technological research from all aspects of micro/nanofabrication connections to femtosecond laser irradiation, including basic, applied, and engineering investigations. This journal's Special Issue will publish novel research papers in cutting-edge advances related to the femtosecond laser beam processing: tree-dimensional micro/nanostructuring, two-photon polymerization, biomimetics of functional structures, fabrication of micro-optics, characterization techniques of microstructures, nonlinear phenomena in processing, interference lithography, efficient laser ablation, LIPSS, ripples, and burst-mode irradiation. The iournal will publish communications, articles, and reviews that are of high quality, impact, and novelty and interesting for wide audiences of scientific and technological communities.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

You are invited to contribute a research article or a comprehensive review for consideration and publication in Photonics (ISSN 2304-6732). Photonics is an online open access journal covering both the fundamental and applications of optics and photonics. Photonics strives to provide an avenue to allow authors to disseminate their scientific findings—both theoretical/ simulations and experimental works—in highly accessible peer-reviewed journal publications. The manuscript in Photonics will be handled with quick turnaround production processing time. We welcome authors to submit their manuscripts for publications in Photonics. Our goal in Photonics is to enable fast dissemination of high impact works to the scientific community.
