

Special Issue

Fiber Reinforced Polymers Applications as Reinforcement of Concrete Structures—Design Aspects, Tests and Analysis

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue will highlight current developments and novelties in the use of FRP as reinforcement in existing or newly constructed concrete structures. Studies involving the integration of FRPs in concrete structural members and structures, including traditional and modern experimental, numerical and analytical investigations are welcome. The research that will be discussed and presented herein focuses on the use of FRP systems in reinforced concrete structural members, as well as the performance of FRPs (including bond performance) under monotonic and cyclic loadings and various environmental exposures

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Since its foundation in 2009, Polymers has developed into an internationally renowned, extremely successful open access journal. The editorial team and the editorial board dedicatedly combine open-access publishing and high-quality rigorous peer reviewing. The performance of the journal has proven this strategy to be well-suited and highly successful. This is reflected in the increasing impact factor of Polymers, the most recent one being 4.9.

I would like to invite you to contribute to the success of the journal by sending us your high quality research papers. We would be pleased to welcome you as one of our authors.

Author Benefits

Open Access:

free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), Ei Compendex, PubMed, PMC, FSTA, CAPIus / SciFinder, Inspec, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q1 (Polymer Science) / CiteScore - Q1 (General Chemistry)
