Special Issue

Environmental Protection and Remediation Processes

Message from the Guest Editors

We are inviting submissions for this Special Issue, which aims to bring together innovative research in the field of environmental protection and remediation. The focus will be on new materials, processes and analytical methodologies that contribute to pollutant mitigation and contaminant monitoring in various environmental matrices. We encourage studies that explore everything from the development of sustainable materials and advanced technologies for pollutant removal to accurate analytical methods for the detection and quantification of toxic substances. Papers that present applicable solutions to environmental challenges, including but not limited to remediation of water, contaminated soils, control of atmospheric emissions, as well as innovative approaches to environmental monitoring are welcome.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

You are invited to contribute either a research article or a comprehensive review for consideration and publication in Processes (ISSN 2227-9717). Processes is published in open access format – research articles, reviews, and other content are released on the internet immediately after acceptance. The scientific community and the general public have unlimited, free access to the content. As an open access journal, Processes is supported by the authors and their institutes through the payment of article processing charges (APCs) for accepted papers. We would be pleased to welcome you as one of our authors.
