Model-Based Design of Experiments for Model Identification: New Challenges and Unconventional Applications

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue will highlight novel research in the field of optimal experimental design for model identification investigating methodological and/or practical aspects related to MBDoE. Recent advances in MBDoE under model uncertainty and/or novel developments of MBDoE techniques in the context of automation and control engineering would be of great interest in this issue. Furthermore, we particularly welcome studies investigating unconventional and new applications of MBDoE across sectors.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

You are invited to contribute either a research article or a comprehensive review for consideration and publication in Processes (ISSN 2227-9717). Processes is published in open access format – research articles, reviews, and other content are released on the internet immediately after acceptance. The scientific community and the general public have unlimited, free access to the content. As an open access journal, Processes is supported by the authors and their institutes through the payment of article processing charges (APCs) for accepted papers. We would be pleased to welcome you as one of our authors.
