Natural Gas/Hydrogen Liquefaction Processes and Refrigerating System

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue on “Natural Gas/Hydrogen Liquefaction Processes and Refrigerating System” aims to cover recent advances in this field, and the topics of interest for it include, but are not limited to, the following areas:

- Novel natural gas/hydrogen liquefaction process;
- Modification and optimization of natural gas/hydrogen liquefaction process;
- Integrated liquefaction process of natural gas and hydrogen;
- Operation simulation of the liquefaction process of natural gas/hydrogen;
- Control strategy for the natural gas/hydrogen liquefaction process;
- Ortho-para hydrogen conversion;
- Integrated application of different energies in the natural gas/hydrogen liquefaction process;
- Integrated process and energy utilization optimization of hydrogen liquefaction and hydrogen production.

I hope you consider participating in this Special Issue.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

You are invited to contribute either a research article or a comprehensive review for consideration and publication in Processes (ISSN 2227-9717). Processes is published in open access format – research articles, reviews, and other content are released on the internet immediately after acceptance. The scientific community and the general public have unlimited, free access to the content. As an open access journal, Processes is supported by the authors and their institutes through the payment of article processing charges (APCs) for accepted papers. We would be pleased to welcome you as one of our authors.
