Application of Biochar in Environmental Research

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue “Application of Biochar in Environmental Research” is intended to compile recent research on the production and characterization of biochar to be used in a wide range of environmental applications. Potential topics include, but are not limited to, the following:

- The pyrolysis of organic waste
- Biochar characterization
- Water cleaning using biochar
- Wastewater treatment using biochar
- Enhanced composting with biochar
- Enhanced anaerobic digestion with biochar
- Crop improvement with biochar fertilization
- Heterogenous catalysis using biochar-based catalysts for environmental applications
- The combination of biochar with nanomaterials for environmental applications

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

You are invited to contribute either a research article or a comprehensive review for consideration and publication in Processes (ISSN 2227-9717). Processes is published in open access format – research articles, reviews, and other content are released on the internet immediately after acceptance. The scientific community and the general public have unlimited, free access to the content. As an open access journal, Processes is supported by the authors and their institutes through the payment of article processing charges (APCs) for accepted papers. We would be pleased to welcome you as one of our authors.

Editor-in-Chief
