Features, Reviews and Perspectives for the 10th Anniversary of Processes

Message from the Guest Editors

As Processes editors, authors, reviewers, and readers, we have the opportunity to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the journal with a Special Issue. Our goal is to highlight the advances and achievements of the past few years. In various fields, new technologies, augmented reality, artificial intelligence, and machine learning could revolutionise the traditional methods and protocols. The current transdisciplinary approach to design highly efficient and sustainable processes will open up new scenarios with major implications for industrial production, research laboratories and society. I expect that the special issue "Features, Reviews and Perspectives for the 10th Anniversary of Processes" will redraw the scientific and technical skyline of the third millennium.
