Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

In 2015 Pope Francis promulgated Laudato Si' – On Care for Our Common Home, and in 2020, Fratelli Tutti – On Fraternity and Social Friendship. Each documents drew deeply on the Franciscan Intellectual Tradition as it provided great insight and wisdom toward resolving one of two global existential problems: life-threatening political divisiveness and a climate emergency.

This special issue invites writers to address one aspect of either existential problem. Authors should select one Franciscan scholar (from any point in over 800-year tradition) and utilize a particular primary text by that scholar to address their chosen issue. To wit, no literature exists that utilizes key Franciscan figures other than Francis, Clare, Bonaventure, or Scotus for discussing these two issues.
