Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

The topic of the special issue covers the topic of the 4th European Conference on Religion, Spirituality and Health ECRSH14 (see www.ecrsh.eu) in Malta May 2014: “Integrating Religion and Spirituality into Clinical Practice”. This special issue documents the European conference, but is open to related topics continuing the discussion.

Message from the Editorial Board

Fresh developments in the disciplines that consistently make significant contributions to our understanding of religious personality, authority, devotion, and community - disciplines ranging from psychology, sociology, and anthropology to history, art history, philosophy, literary criticism, and political science – fuel general, as well as scholarly, interest in the world's religions.

Religions is inviting innovative and comparative contributions. Please consider Religions as an exceptional, exciting enterprise ready to reward your trust, attention, and participation.
