Message from the Guest Editor

I am writing to invite your contribution to a Special Edition of the Religions journal, titled “International Perspectives and Practices for Religious Education in Early Childhood”. Religions is ranked as a Q1 journal, and as you are renowned for your research in this area, I would love to have your involvement in this issue.

If you are able to contribute to the issue, which I hope you can, I request that, prior to submitting a manuscript, you initially submit a proposed title and an abstract of 400–600 words summarizing your intended contribution. Please send it to my email (Christine.robinson@nd.edu.au). If you do this, I can ensure a good fit within the scope of the Special Issue. Full manuscripts will undergo double-blind peer-review.

Message from the Editorial Board

Fresh developments in the disciplines that consistently make significant contributions to our understanding of religious personality, authority, devotion, and community - disciplines ranging from psychology, sociology, and anthropology to history, art history, philosophy, literary criticism, and political science – fuel general, as well as scholarly, interest in the world's religions.

Religions is inviting innovative and comparative contributions. Please consider Religions as an exceptional, exciting enterprise ready to reward your trust, attention, and participation.
