Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

The present Special Issue covers the topic of the 8th European Conference on Religion, Spirituality and Health, ECRSH 2022 (see www.ecrsh.eu), which will be held in Amsterdam, NL, 2–4 June 2022: “Religious, Spiritual and Existential Aspects in Mental Health Care”.

The following topics will be discussed:

Previous research on religion, spirituality and health; importance of definitions; understanding mechanisms and pathways; highest priority studies for future research; strengths and weaknesses of religion and spirituality measures; designing different types of research projects; statistics and statistical modeling; funding your research; writing a grant; managing a research project; writing a research paper for publication; developing an academic career in this area.

Tentative completion schedule:

- 01-04-2022 abstract submission deadline
- Notification of abstract acceptance: accepted
- Full manuscript deadline: 01-09-2022

Message from the Editorial Board

Fresh developments in the disciplines that consistently make significant contributions to our understanding of religious personality, authority, devotion, and community - disciplines ranging from psychology, sociology, and anthropology to history, art history, philosophy, literary criticism, and political science – fuel general, as well as scholarly, interest in the world's religions.

Religions is inviting innovative and comparative contributions. Please consider Religions as an exceptional, exciting enterprise ready to reward your trust, attention, and participation.
