

Special Issue

The Catholic Encounter with Chinese Thought, Society and Politics in the Ming–Qing Dynasties

Message from the Guest Editor

We request that, prior to submitting a manuscript, interested authors initially submit a proposed title and an abstract of 200–300 words summarizing their intended contribution. Papers should be original contributions, not previously published in another language nor under consideration in another journal. Please send them to the , Prof. Thierry Meynard (meiqianl@mail.sysu.edu.cn), who will review them for the purpose of ensuring it properly fits within the scope of the Special Issue. Full manuscripts will undergo double-blind peer review. We look forward to receiving your contributions.

About the Journal

Message from the Editorial Board

Fresh developments in the disciplines that consistently make significant contributions to our understanding of religious personality, authority, devotion, and community – disciplines ranging from psychology, sociology, and anthropology to history, art history, philosophy, literary criticism, and political science – fuel general, as well as scholarly, interest in the world's religions.

Religions is inviting innovative and comparative contributions. Please consider Religions as an exceptional, exciting enterprise ready to reward your trust, attention, and participation.
