

Special Issue

Tibet-Mongol Buddhism Studies

Message from the Guest Editor

This volume is dedicated to the study of Buddhist relations between Tibet and Mongolia. Research areas may include (but are not limited to) the following: all influences between these two Buddhist cultures in the variety of Buddhist fields of knowledge, practices, important historical events, and people who shaped the relations between Tibet and Mongolia. In this Special Issue, original research articles and reviews are welcome. We request that, prior to submitting a manuscript, interested authors initially submit a proposed title and an abstract of 200–300 words summarizing their intended contribution. Please send it to the Guest Editor, Prof. Vesna A. Wallace (vwallace@religion.ucsb.edu), and CC the Assistant Editor, Margaret Liu (margaret.liu@mdpi.com) of Religions. Abstracts will be reviewed by the for the purposes of ensuring that they properly fit within the scope of this Special Issue. Full manuscripts will undergo double-blind peer review. Tentative timeline: Deadline for abstract submission: January 15, 2024
Deadline for full manuscript submission: April 30, 2025
We look forward to receiving your contributions.

About the Journal

Message from the Editorial Board

Fresh developments in the disciplines that consistently make significant contributions to our understanding of religious personality, authority, devotion, and community – disciplines ranging from psychology, sociology, and anthropology to history, art history, philosophy, literary criticism, and political science – fuel general, as well as scholarly, interest in the world's religions.

Religions is inviting innovative and comparative contributions. Please consider Religions as an exceptional, exciting enterprise ready to reward your trust, attention, and participation.
