

Special Issue

The Present and Future of Inter-religiosity

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue focuses on religiosity in the context of globalism, pluralism and diversity. The editors acknowledge inter-religiosity as an umbrella term that covers every aspect of religiosity stemming from interreligious encounters, relations and interactions—be it receptive or antagonistic to other religions, or be it related to digital humanity. Papers that provide a fresh look at inter-religiosity, delineating its present and future, are welcomed; the submission of case studies in diverse cultural contexts across the globe is particularly encouraged. We request that prior to submitting a manuscript, interested authors initially submit a proposed title and an abstract of 400–600 words summarizing their intended contribution. Please send this to the , (heonkim@esu.edu), Dr. Song Chong Lee (songchonglee@snu.ac.kr), or to the Religions Editorial Office (religions@mdpi.com). Abstracts will be reviewed by the for the purposes of ensuring proper fit within the scope of the Special Issue. Full manuscripts will undergo double-blind peer review.

About the Journal

Message from the Editorial Board

Fresh developments in the disciplines that consistently make significant contributions to our understanding of religious personality, authority, devotion, and community – disciplines ranging from psychology, sociology, and anthropology to history, art history, philosophy, literary criticism, and political science – fuel general, as well as scholarly, interest in the world's religions.

Religions is inviting innovative and comparative contributions. Please consider Religions as an exceptional, exciting enterprise ready to reward your trust, attention, and participation.
