

Special Issue

Catholic Youth & Young Adult Ministry

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Edition of Religions will concentrate generally on Christian youth (ages 14–18) and young adult (ages 19–30) ministry and development, but more specifically youth and young adults in the Catholic tradition. Authors will focus their scholarship on a variety of issues that are pertinent to Catholic youth and/or young adult ministry or youth and/or young adult development and spirituality.

The scope of this issue is to provide influential writings that feature authors across the landscape of Catholic youth and young adult ministry; experts and specialists who function as theologians, pastoral practitioners, and developmental and spirituality scholars. This special issue will hopefully touch upon theology, anthropology, ecclesiology, and perhaps Christology; however, it will address, more specifically, the importance of adolescents, emerging adults, and young adults in explicitly Catholic theological and ministerial means, and in ways that shape models, methods, and practices of doing youth and young adult ministry in the Catholic tradition.

About the Journal

Message from the Editorial Board

Fresh developments in the disciplines that consistently make significant contributions to our understanding of religious personality, authority, devotion, and community – disciplines ranging from psychology, sociology, and anthropology to history, art history, philosophy, literary criticism, and political science – fuel general, as well as scholarly, interest in the world's religions.

Religions is inviting innovative and comparative contributions. Please consider Religions as an exceptional, exciting enterprise ready to reward your trust, attention, and participation.
