Green BioHydrogen from Biomass: Technical Possibilities and Economical Challenges

Message from the Guest Editor

Biohydrogen is the future energy fuel for cars and marine transportation. The market for biohydrogen is already established for chemical industries such as the petroleum industry and ammonia production. We are inviting papers on recent developments and technology presentations of biohydrogen productions from biomass. Biohydrogen is the future energy fuel due to its high energy density and diverse applications. Priority will be given to work on hydrogen production from algae. We welcome manuscripts on biohydrogen storage, transportation, and market analysis.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Responsible prosperity is underpinned by sustained access to resources. Resources, publishes excellent science and scholarship which transforms understanding, practices and policies for conserving all natural resources—from water, land and air; to plant and animal biodiversity; to minerals and energy and their interconnection across scales. Significantly, we invite high quality submissions from natural and social sciences.

Build impact from your research by submitting to Resources, an open-access journal connecting you with data, insights, ideas and evidence needed to shape a better world.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, ESCI (Web of Science), GeoRef, PubAg, AGRIS, RePEc, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Environmental Sciences) / CiteScore - Q1
(Nature and Landscape Conservation)

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 24.6 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 4.6 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2025).
