Message from the Guest Editors

Young minds are a wonderful source of fresh, disruptive ideas in the definition, pricing, and mitigation of risk. Unencumbered by traditional approaches to risk management and insurance, this next generation is primed to think about risk in emerging areas such as cyber-insurance and autonomous cars, and offer new insights on traditional actuarial topics. This special issue seeks to put a spotlight on the next generation of actuarial scientists, risk managers, and quants who may not have had the chance to see their work disseminated in a leading journal such as Risks.

Our goal with this Special Issue is to encourage postdoctoral fellows, graduate, and undergraduate students (with or without PhD/Fellow/Associate co-authors) to submit their work to us in the confidence that they will be reviewed with care by leading academics and practitioners in the field. We hope this experience will encourage our next generation of actuaries and risk managers to keep transforming our field for the betterment of society.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Risks is published in Open Access format – research articles, reviews and other content are released on the internet immediately after acceptance. Specifically, Risks welcomes contributions that

- contribute with insight, outlook, understanding and overview, no matter how simple they are;
- show creativity in pedagogical tricks and techniques;
- help the transfer of theoretical research to public and private application;
- show responsibility for societal impact.

The scientific community and the general public have unlimited free access to the content as soon as it is published.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High visibility: indexed in the Emerging Sources Citation Index (ESCI - Web of Science) and EconLit. To be added in Scopus from Vol. 6 (2018).

Rapid publication: manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision provided to authors approximately 20.4 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 5.6 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2019).
