

Special Issue

Selected Papers from International Conference on Applied Business and Economics (ICABE 2025)

Message from the Guest Editors

Dear colleagues,

In this Special Issue of Risks, we invite submissions for a Special Issue titled "Selected Papers from International Conference on Applied Business and Economics (ICABE 2025)", including contributions from authors interested in this topic. This Special Issue will feature high-quality research presented at ICABE 2025, but also papers not presented at the conference, given that they offer valuable insights into contemporary risk-related challenges in business, economics, and finance, while also covering the themes mentioned below. We welcome original research articles and high-quality review papers related to risk management and assessment—focusing on, but not limited to, the following areas:

- Financial risks and investment strategies;
- Risk modeling and quantitative finance;
- Economic and business risks in a globalized world;
- Sustainable finance and ESG risks;
- Risk management in banking and insurance;
- Corporate governance and risk control;
- Digital transformation and cybersecurity risks;
- Environmental and climate-related risks;
- Political and policy-driven economic risks;
- AI, Big Data and risk analytics.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Risks is published in an open access format; research articles, reviews, and other content are released on the internet immediately after acceptance. Specifically, Risks welcomes submissions that (a) contribute with insight, outlook, understanding, and overview; (b) show creativity in terms of pedagogical methods and techniques; (c) help the transfer of theoretical and applied research into applications in the public and private domains; and (d) show responsibility for the impact on society. The scientific and the general public have unlimited free access to the content as soon as it is published.
