2018 BEST PAPER AWARD WINNERS

Dear Authors

We are very pleased to announce the winners of the 2018 Safety Best Paper Award. Three reviews and three research articles were selected by the journal award committee according to their originality; significance; as well as citation, download, and view rates in 2019 (Web of Science and Database of MDPI). The award recipients will each receive a certificate and an invitation to publish a paper free of charge in Safety, after the normal peer-review procedure. Each paper will additionally receive a bonus based on the award class. The winners list is as follows:

First Award (one research paper), 500 CHF;
Newman, S.; Keefe, R.; Brooks, R.; Ahonen, E.; Wempe, A. Human Factors Affecting Logging Injury Incidents in Idaho and the Potential for Real-Time Location-Sharing Technology to Improve Safety. https://www.mdpi.com/2313-576X/4/4/43
