Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

This Special Issue comprises selected papers from the proceedings of the 10th International Conference on Sensing Technology, held in Nanjing, China, 11–13 November 2016. In this 10th edition of the conference, researchers, scientists, engineers, and practitioners throughout the world were invited to submit papers and present their latest research findings, ideas, developments and applications in the area of sensing technology. Some of the papers, which provided innovative contribution, have been selected and extended for publication in this Special Issue. We hope the readers will find this Special Issue interesting and informative.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Sensors is a leading journal devoted to fast publication of the latest achievements of technological developments and scientific research in the huge area of physical, chemical and biochemical sensors, including remote sensing and sensor networks. Both experimental and theoretical papers are published, including all aspects of sensor design, technology, proof of concept and application. Sensors organizes Special Issues devoted to specific sensing areas and applications each year.
