Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

The 3rd International Conference “Biophotonics—Riga” was held recently is the biggest biophotonics event in the Baltic region. Authors of selected high-quality papers from the conference will be invited to submit extended versions of their original papers (50% extensions of contents of the conference paper) and contributions under the following conference topics: (i) biomedical tissue imaging, (ii) optical clinical diagnostics and monitoring, and (iii) skin optics and spectroscopy. Advances in these fields have increasing importance in public healthcare involving optical noninvasive technologies and improving quality of life. Papers related to the conference theme are solicited, including theories, methodologies, and emerging applications. Contributions to theory and practice, including but not limited to the abovementioned areas, are invited. In addition to the BPR papers, other independent submissions are also welcome. The subject of these contributions should be in the same research topics. ## Message from the Editorial Board

Sensors is a leading journal devoted to fast publication of the latest achievements of technological developments and scientific research in the huge area of physical, chemical and biochemical sensors, including remote sensing and sensor networks. Both experimental and theoretical papers are published, including all aspects of sensor design, technology, proof of concept and application. Sensors organizes Special Issues devoted to specific sensing areas and applications each year.

Author Benefits

Open Access :— free for readers, with article processing charges \(APC\) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE \(Web of Science\), Ei Compendex, PubMed, MEDLINE, PMC, Embase, Inspec, and many other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q1 (Instruments & Instrumentation) / CiteScore - Q1 (Instrumentation)
