Cybersecurity in Sensor Networks

Message from the Guest Editors

We are pleased to announce a Call for Papers for a Special Issue on Cyber Security in Sensor Networks. This Special Issue aims to bring together researchers, practitioners, and experts to share their latest findings, innovative ideas, and significant advancements in the field of cyber security as it pertains to sensor networks. Our goal is to foster a collaborative and comprehensive exploration of the current challenges, emerging trends, and cutting-edge solutions in securing sensor networks, and to provide a platform for disseminating high-quality research that can drive further developments and applications in this area. For detailed information, please visit here.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Sensors is a leading journal devoted to fast publication of the latest achievements of technological developments and scientific research in the huge area of physical, chemical and biochemical sensors, including remote sensing and sensor networks. Both experimental and theoretical papers are published, including all aspects of sensor design, technology, proof of concept and application. Sensors organizes Special Issues devoted to specific sensing areas and applications each year.

Editor-in-Chief

Prof. Dr. Vittorio M. N. Passaro

Dipartimento di Ingegneria Elettrica e dell'Informazione (Department of Electrical and Information Engineering), Politecnico di Bari, Via Edoardo Orabona n. 4, 70125 Bari, Italy

Author Benefits

Open Access:

free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, MEDLINE, PMC, Ei Compendex, Inspec, Astrophysics Data System, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Instruments and Instrumentation) / CiteScore - Q1 (Instrumentation)
