Selected Papers from UCAml 2016

Message from the Guest Editors

The 10th International Conference on Ubiquitous Computing and Ambient Intelligence (UCAml 2016) will be held from 29 November to 2 December, 2016, in the Canary Islands, Spain. Traditionally, the science and technology of sensors and biosensors has had a remarkable influence on UCAml conferences. Thus, both academia and industry are invited to submit papers about any of following topics of interest:

- Internet of Things
- Smart Cities
- Ad-Hoc Sensor Networks
- Human-Computer Interaction
- Security
- Ambient Assisted Living
- Ambient Intelligence for Health

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Sensors is a leading journal devoted to fast publication of the latest achievements of technological developments and scientific research in the huge area of physical, chemical and biochemical sensors, including remote sensing and sensor networks. Both experimental and theoretical papers are published, including all aspects of sensor design, technology, proof of concept and application. Sensors organizes Special Issues devoted to specific sensing areas and applications each year.
