Sensors in Automatic Control Systems: the XV International Scientific and Technical Conference "Actual Problems Of Electronic Instrument Engineering" APEIE-2021

Message from the Guest Editor

Sensors in automation and robotic devices are very important. Their speed, accuracy, and measurement range in an essential part determine the characteristics of the entire automation device or robotics as a whole. The development of methods and measuring instruments for this reason determine the progress in this direction of technology. Such sensors should have the highest possible response speed and high accuracy, reliability, reproducibility of their characteristics, low noise, and displacement. The scientific exchange of information on the latest advances in high-speed sensors and their applications is extremely relevant. Of interest are reports on the expansion of the scope of sensors and on methods for improving them, as well as on technologies for creating new sensors, methods of their certification, calibration, and so on. ## About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Sensors is a leading journal devoted to fast publication of the latest achievements of technological developments and scientific research in the huge area of physical, chemical and biochemical sensors, including remote sensing and sensor networks. Both experimental and theoretical papers are published, including all aspects of sensor design, technology, proof of concept and application. Sensors organizes Special Issues devoted to specific sensing areas and applications each year.

Author Benefits

Open Access:

free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, MEDLINE, PMC, Ei Compendex, Inspec, Astrophysics Data System, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Instruments and Instrumentation) / CiteScore - Q1 (Instrumentation)
