Extraction in Mineral Processing: Flotation and Chemical Treatment of Minerals

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue focuses on, but is not limited to, the following topics: (1) flotation chemistry (flotation electrochemistry, flotation solution chemistry, and flotation surface and colloid chemistry); (2) molecular structure design, synthesis and application of flotation reagents; (3) mixed use of flotation reagents and their synergistic effects; (4) biochemical extraction of mineral resources; (5) leaching and extraction of minerals; (6) chemical treatment of minerals and enhancement of their separation process; and (7) roasting and efficient separation of mineral raw materials.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Separations offers the scientific community a high-quality, open-access journal option with rapid time-to-publication without any sacrifice of a rigorous peer-review process. We invite contributions ranging from fundamental characterization and instrumentation development through application of techniques to shed light on a broad spectrum of separation science needs. Since inception, Separations, has become unique in its combination of rapid publication and thorough scientific content. We invite you to consider us for your next contribution.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 16.3 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.7 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2025).

Recognition of Reviewers:

reviewers who provide timely, thorough peer-review reports receive vouchers entitling them to a discount on the APC of their next publication in any MDPI journal, in appreciation of the work done.
