

Special Issue

Emotional Labor, Stress, and Well-Being: Components of the Sustainability and Dignity of Work

Message from the Guest Editors

Aligned with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) of the UN 2030 Agenda, this Special Issue aims to address related theoretical-methodological aspects and disseminate empirical studies from different countries on emotional labor, stress, decent work, and well-being at work. We expect that there would be a contribution to the nomological network, providing better differentiation and interrelation between the concepts and theoretical bases that guide research in that field. We also intend to disseminate empirical studies that help elaborate management policies to improve the dignity and quality of life at work. Considering Agendas 3 (Establish Good Health and Well-Being), 8 (Create Decent Work and Economic Growth), and 10 (Reduce Inequality), we expect contributions from authors whose research focuses on those relevant topics.
