Sustainability for Social Community Impact

Message from the Guest Editors

The papers selected for presentation at the Singapore Hub of the World Sustainability Forum seek to address the theme of the potential and realized social and community impact of sustainability efforts, the challenges faced by these efforts, as well as the innovative means to overcome these challenges. The theme inspires and showcases collaborative efforts among diverse groups within communities, from social groups to industries, institutions, and individuals, to co-create sustainable solutions for current and future problems. The diverse innovative means explored in the selected papers include social, communal, strategic, biological, ecological, and technological approaches. Moreover, the authors of the selected papers hail from different countries, reflecting a global approach to sustainability efforts.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Social Sciences is an international open access peer-reviewed journal publishing the latest research across all disciplines of the social sciences including anthropology, criminology, economics, education, geography, history, law, linguistics, political science, psychology, social policy, social work, sociology and related areas. The journal is especially interested in interdisciplinary research, and aims to facilitate the interaction and communication between different social scientific disciplines. The journal welcomes conventional length articles as well as shorter Research Notes or short articles, as long as they meet the journal's standards of quality and originality.
