Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

Most manufacturing and service industries are aware of the digital transition need for leveraging their business sustainability and competitiveness. Digital technologies and Industrial Internet of Things (IIoT) already have a relevant role in the actual business intelligence age.

Industry is experiencing unprecedented conditions and challenges related to technology and data availability. Digital, networked, and intelligent technologies provide huge amounts of raw data that allow to create new or modify existing business processes, culture, and customer experiences to meet changing business and market requirements.

In this context, researchers and practitioners are invited to submit original research articles, reviews, and case studies within the following topics and related fields.

Topics: digital transformation; Industry 4.0; intelligent technologies; artificial intelligence; machine learning; big data; simulation technologies; virtual reality; process configuration and control; digital twin; supply chain 5.0.

We look forward to receiving your contributions.
