Message from the Guest Editors

The aim of this SI is to stimulate the discussion about how agritourism is changing in recent years and about the role of agritourism in supporting reaching the goals of the UN's 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. Moreover, the SI calls for papers that highlight the contributions of agritourism in supporting resilience and antifragility at the micro (farm) and macro (rural system) levels during the current uncertain times.

Possible topics are as follows:

- Sustainable agritourism.
- Agritourism in the post-pandemic era.
- Rural tourism experiences.
- Case studies of agritourism facing sustainability.
- Integrated rural development.
- Sustainable rural networks.
- Resilience/antifragility in agritourism farms.
- Agritourism and rural networks.
- Wine and food tourism, wine routes, and experiences.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
