Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue will improve our understanding of the use of strategic alliances, and mergers and acquisitions to generate the required capital investment and resources to reduce climate change. We welcome both theoretical and empirical contributions that advance the state of knowledge on the role of collaborative ventures, such as joint ventures; mergers and acquisitions, in green/climate finance, in both developed and developing countries.

Topics include but not limited to the following:

- The benefits and disadvantages of joint ventures, mergers and acquisitions in green investments
- Research and development and corporate acquisitions
- Corporate governance and green finance by mergers and acquisitions
- Female board representation and green finance by mergers and acquisitions
- Motivation and challenges of technology acquisitions
- Green investments and profitability of mergers and acquisition
- Exploration of the role of government in promoting green finance through mergers and acquisitions and joint ventures
- Ownership type, mergers and acquisitions and green finance
