Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

What lies in the future for creative industries and how can innovation and entrepreneurship contribute to sustainable transition thereof? With this Special Issue, we want to expand this discussion through research.

We invite papers that address matters of sustainability in a broad sense relative to innovation and entrepreneurship. Topics include (but are not limited to):

- Sustainable transition through business model innovation in creative industries;
- Open innovation processes in creative industries: strengths and weaknesses for sustainable transition;
- Specifics of knowledge-intensive entrepreneurship in creative industries;
- Collaborative practices for creativity and public policy;
- The role of universities/higher education for sustainable transition in creative industries.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international Open Access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer-reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
