Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

This Special Issue offers deeper insight into Industry 4.0 drivers on the performance of the service sector, from the lens of human resources management. The aim is to encourage authors and readers to discuss and question the existing trends in human resources management and its linkage to Industry 4.0 drivers and sustainable operations.

This Special Issue covers the wide range of human resources management theories and practices under the sustainability umbrella, examining the relationship within the service sector opting for Industry 4.0 drivers. Theoretical and practical developments related to existing studies revised, revisited, and further exploring modernized methods are invited to fill the gap in existing HRM, Industry 4.0 drivers, and related knowledge by recommending sustainable approaches.
