Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

Our aim is to compile a Special Issue that highlights research on recent trends in nature-based tourism, protected areas, and sustainability. Papers can address emerging trends, provide innovative methodological approaches, and/or challenge current assumptions in thinking about nature-based tourism, protected areas, and sustainability. Topics may include:

- emerging trends in nature-based tourism and protected areas (event tourism, adventure racing, health and wellness tourism, new technologies, changing demographics, motivations and preferences);
- interactions between nature-based tourism, communities, and protected areas;
- governance and adaptation;
- planning and management of protected areas for nature-based tourism and sustainability;
- responses to environmental, social, and economic change and disturbance;
- indigenous approaches to conservation and nature-based tourism development;
- social–ecological systems and resilience thinking;
- innovative approaches to management and use of technology.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
