Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

In this Special Issue, to be published in Sustainability, we want to provide a forum that collects current proposals that address these challenges, and to aspire to a future where healthy ageing with sustainable technology is possible.

Sustainability is an international open access journal that provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development.
This Special Issue aims to collect contributions to cover the research gaps in sustainable technology for elderly life, providing a reference resource to the scientific community working in this area.

Research papers, concept papers, communications, comprehensive reviews and empirical applications are welcome to submit to this special Issue cause.
