Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

The call for papers is addressed to conceptual works, literature reviews, empirical data analyses, as well as qualitative works. We are interested in the following areas of study:

- Papers related to corporate governance and its impact on environmental performance;
- Definition and establishment of strategies to achieve better environmental performance;
- Corporate disclosure or reporting of environmental aspects;
- Models to understand and study the evaluation of the environmental performance of companies;
- Development of sustainable supply chain policies and their impact on the environment;
- Implementation of policies related to the circular economy.
