Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

Considering your expertise, you are invited to submit your work in a Special Issue entitled "Ecotourism and Sustainable Development: Challenges and Opportunities" at the international, peer-reviewed open access journal Sustainability. The scope of the issue is aiming to bridge research conducted at a multi-disciplinary level and address issues relevant to the sustainable practice of ecotourism; a worldwide fast-growing trend in the travel industry.

The purpose of this issue is to show the work that has been done from a wide range of multi-disciplinary professions. Specifically, scientific organizations (from the research fields of environment economy, business, computer sciences, etc.), hospitality professions, policy makers, NGOs and stakeholders can help enlighten the path to achieve sustainable long-term practices of ecotourism while safeguarding ecosystems. You are all welcome to take advantage of this unique outstanding opportunity to show your work.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international Open Access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer-reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
