Message from the Guest Editors

The European Commission has just released the “Circular Economy Action Plan—The European Green Deal” focusing on the need to accelerate the transition towards a regenerative growth model. Through this Special Issue, we aim at collecting studies, both qualitative and quantitative, as well as best practices and experience descriptions which focus on the circular economy, considering all its aspects. We aim at providing a 360-degrees perspective of the circular economy considering its nano (product), micro (organizations, consumers), meso (industrial parks, etc.), and macro (cities, countries, etc.) level. In addition to these aspects, we aim also at matching studies connected with the communication and measurement of the circular economy. We aim at investigating the relationship between the circular economy and its tools. In the framework described above, this Special Issue invites authors to contribute in all the aspects of the circular economy in order to provide the most comprehensive overview of this important topic.
