Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

We would like to invite you to contribute to our upcoming Special Issue in Sustainability on evolutionary perspectives on environmental policy and governance.

We are open to contributions from many different disciplines, which is particularly fitting, as evolutionary perspectives on economics, geography, development, sociology, policy, politics, and administration have proliferated over the years but have often lost contact. One contribution that this Special Issue aims to achieve is the re-linking of evolutionary perspectives mushrooming across disciplines, fostering a productive discussion that could lead to a new synthesis. Another contribution is the further development of applications of evolutionary perspectives to issues of natural resource governance and environmental policy and governance.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international Open Access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer-reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
