Message from the Guest Editors

Small businesses today face an increasing number of challenges. The topic of sustainability is one of them. The Network for Business Sustainability reported a number of challenges that smaller firms see in conjunction with sustainability, like how the benefits of sustainability activities can be quantified.

In this Special Issue, we welcome papers that address, but are not limited to, the following research topics about innovations in small businesses and sustainability:

- Sustainability and its importance for small businesses
- Environmental sustainability and innovations
- Economic sustainability and innovations
- Social sustainability and innovations
- Sustainable strategies for small businesses
- Assessment of sustainable activities in small businesses
- Role of innovation in small firms' business sustainability
- Assessment of sustainable innovations
- Responsible innovation and its impact on business sustainability
- Sustainable innovations in small businesses for improved relationships with different types of stakeholders

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international Open Access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer-reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High visibility: indexed by the Science Citation Index Expanded and Social Sciences Citation Index (Web of Science), as well as Scopus and other databases.

Rapid Publication: manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision provided to authors approximately 17 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 3.6 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the second half of 2019).
