Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

Public-Private Partnerships (PPPs) have been adopted worldwide as a procurement model able to leverage private capital and private expertise, to deliver and manage public infrastructure and public services. The debate and literature on PPP have grown significantly in the last decade. This Special Issue intends to bring sustainability to the center of debate on PPPs, providing a set of papers that can pave the way towards a more holistic evaluation, development, and implementation of PPPs. The following areas are most welcome (not exclusive):

- Sustainability assessment in PPPs;
- Monitoring sustainability in PPP projects;
- Financial sustainability of PPPs;
- PPPs for environmental projects;
- PPPs and resilient projects.
