Message from the Guest Editors

The Special Issue will be focused on original contributions to rural geography and tourism theory. I encourage authors to submit original research articles on topics including, but not limited to, the following:

- Contemporary trends in rural geography;
- Rural tourism as a part of global tendencies in the travel industry;
- Methodological aspects of the overall rural development and welfare of the countryside;
- Rural geographical research fostering resilience in the face of rural communities' problems and events;
- Role of rural tourism in the sustainability principles: worldwide examples and comparisons;
- The processes of assessing rural strategies' contributions to sustainability;
- Stakeholder involvement in rural economy and community-based development;
- The evolution of rural tourism, its history, assessments, and contemporary organization;
- Conceptual connections of inclusion, resilience, and other ideas to local economy;
- Case studies of rural tourism management, covering successes and failures as appropriate;
- The evolution and future of rural planning and progress.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international Open Access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer-reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
