The purpose of this Special Issue in the journal of Sustainability (ISSN 2071-1050) is to consider future ‘utopias’ for cities based on human impacts on the urban environment. Authors are asked to envision the optimal future relating to their areas of (urban) expertise and relate these to long-term (future) temporality. They are asked to contemplate the question: What would you change in the city if it helped to achieve sustainability? A wide range of topics can be encapsulated in this approach within the auspice of an integrated (environmental) sustainability. Other spatial scales can also be accommodated here based on multiscalar and integrated approaches; and cross-temporal approaches are also well-suited to this Special Issue.
