Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

This Special Issue aims to collect a selection of papers on venture capital and sustainable development of enterprise. The sustainable development of enterprises refers to the fact that, in their process of operation, enterprises should not only consider the realization of their business objectives and improvement of their market position but also maintain continuous profit growth in the future to ensure the long-term prosperity of enterprises. The sustainable development of enterprises is affected by many factors. This Special issue mainly focuses on the impact of venture capital and public policy on the sustainable development of enterprises.

Topics may include but are not limited to:

Construction of indicators of sustainable development of enterprise

Venture capital and sustainable development of enterprise

Venture capital and enterprise innovation

Venture capital and enterprise competitiveness

Venture capital and enterprise production efficiency

Venture capital and green development

Venture capital in different enterprise lifecycles

Sustainable finance instruments (green bonds, green finance, social bonds, etc.)
