

Special Issue

Sustainable Pavement Materials

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue encourages submissions of recent work that further our understanding of the mechanisms influencing the durability and low carbon emissions of pavement materials. This Special Issue also lays out an interdisciplinary framework that not only aims to advance specific areas of science and engineering but also to help advance the state of practice in road engineering. Review articles that describe the current state-of-the-art are also encouraged. Topics welcome for submission to this Special Issue include, but are not limited to: (1) Mechanism studies of pavement materials' performance, including aging, recycling, and fatigue; (2) Development and evaluation of innovative materials or technologies in road engineering; (3) Performance evaluation of sustainable pavement materials and structures; (4) Life cycle assesment of transportation infrastructure mateirals (5) Low-carbon construction and maintenance technology of pavement materials.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
