Advanced Studies in Sustainable Urban Planning and Urban Development

Message from the Guest Editors

Sustainable urban planning is vital in addressing rapid urbanization, climate change, and resource depletion. As cities grow, challenges related to infrastructure, transportation, and environmental impact increase. The Special Issue on "Advanced Studies in Sustainable Urban Planning and Urban Development" aligns with Sustainability by addressing urban resilience, low-carbon development, smart cities, and green infrastructure. It explores interdisciplinary approaches to sustainable urban growth, supporting the journal's mission to advance environmental, social, and economic sustainability. In this Special Issue, original research articles and reviews are welcome. Research areas may include (but not limited to) the following:

- Sustainable urban planning;
- Smart cities;
- Green infrastructure;
- Digital transformation;
- Sustainable mobility;
- Low-carbon and energy-efficient urban development;
- Policy and governance for sustainable cities.

We look forward to receiving your contributions.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international open access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
