Entrepreneurship and Innovation Management under Sustainable Development

Message from the Guest Editors

In an era characterized by rapid environmental and social changes, the intersection of entrepreneurship, innovation management and sustainable development has become increasingly important. Entrepreneurs and innovators play a pivotal role in shaping the future, as they create new business and innovator ventures, especially start-ups, products and technologies that have the potential to drive positive change while addressing critical global challenges. This Special Issue entitled "Entrepreneurship and Innovation Management under Sustainable Development" aims to explore the dynamic relationship between entrepreneurship, innovation and sustainability from a different prism. We invite original research papers, reviews articles and case studies that address (but are not limited to) the following topics:

- Sustainable Entrepreneurship
- Innovation for Sustainability
- Stakeholder Involvement
- Entrepreneurial Ecosystems
- Sustainable Business Strategies
- Circular Economy and Social Innovation
- Policy and Regulation

We look forward to receiving your contributions.
