Management for Sustainable Future: Challenges, Innovations and Organizational Performance

Message from the Guest Editor

The goal of this Special Issue is to create a discussion platform for scientists, policymakers, and practitioners in the field of sustainable futures. This discussion platform should become a source of ideas and solutions to help governments improve the management of sustainable development. The scope of this Special Issue may include: • Innovations in management theory and practice for achieving Sustainable Development Goals from SDG 1 to SDG 17: • Managing organizational performance in the face of global challenges; • Integration of artificial intelligence into sustainable future; • Solutions for organizations in the context of adapting to climate change; • Sustainability in global supply chain management; . Corporate social responsibility and sustainable management; • Scientists' tips for governments for the achievement of national policies for a sustainable future; • Special topic: how to motivate scientists for the strongest performance (SDG 9.5).

We invite you to contribute to this vital discussion by submitting high-quality conceptual and empirical papers that address these challenges and provide scientifically grounded insights.
